By bus from the main railway station (Cornavin) : in front of the main entrance of Geneva Railway station (Cornavin) towards the Notre Dame church, there is an intersection where all the buses pull in. Take the number 3 bus (direction Gardiol) and get off at Maison des Parlements (10 stops from the railway station). The Australian Mission and Consulate is the white building by the bus stop – just walk round the corner and you will find the entrance 30 metres along on the right.

By car from Lausanne: exit the autoroute direction ‘Genève-Lac’ (Route de Lausanne). When you see directions to the ‘Place des Nations’ turn right (Avenue de la Paix) Drive approx 200 metres to the ‘Place des Nations’

Follow round to the opposite side of the square and turn right onto Route de Ferney (direction Aéroport, Ferney-Gex, Annecy)

Drive 150 metres up hill and turn left at the first set of traffic lights by the Intercontinental Hotel, and you will be on Chemin de Petit Saconnex. Carry on to the T-junction at the end of the road : turn right onto Rue de Moillebeau which becomes Chemin Moïse Duboule further on

Continue up hill, carry on straight, with the Tourelle Centre & Migros on your left, and you will pass the Cimetière du Petit Saconnex on your right

The first right after you have passed the cemetery is Chemin des Fins. The Australian Mission and Consulate is the white building on the corner. The entrance is 30 metres along on the right.
